CHAPTER I

A. The Background of Problem

Language is a social phenomenon. It means language is a set of convention of communicative signal used by human for interaction in a community. Language in this sense is possession of a social group, comprising an indispensable set of rules which permits its member to relate to each other. Then Language is the most important aspect in the life of all beings. We use language to express inner thoughts and emotions, make sense of complex and abstract thought, to learn to communicate with others, to fulfill our wants and needs, as well as to establish rules and maintain our culture.

Today, English is a second language in Indonesia, so it's an important language that students study. The fact it is a compulsory subject at school since formerly up to now. It is taught from junior high school until university.

The State Institute for Islamic Studies manages some programs to their students to improve their ability how to become English teacher. They use some ways to upgrade their students' ability in mastering Parts of speech, are one of factors which influence these skills comprehension. No one material in English which not using Parts of speech, so impossible reason. But, so many problems that we can see because whether the fourth semester, the last semester we can find many students cannot use these parts of speech effectively.

Parts of speech is the meaning of a word and the way it is used in a sentence”.¹ It means that every words in the English can be assigned to at least one of only eight categories called parts of speech. It is known as the basic part of sentence constructing and as a small unit of sentence constructing.

According to Lingga Hotben D “Parts of speech adalah jenis atau kelas kata yang terdiri dari delapan jenis yaitu kata benda, kata sifat, kata ganti, kata kerja, kata keterangan, kata depan, kata sambung dan kata seru”² In other word, it can be stated that parts of speech is kind or class of words which is devided into eight basic kinds; noun, adjective, pronoun, verb, adverb, preposition, conjunction and interjencion.

Sofia Rangkuti also says ”Parts of speech in made up of a combination of words in the correct order and function according to English grammar”.³ It means that parts of speech is the words combining to make the correct order based on the English grammar.

Above part of speech, it is also important subject in mastering English, the students who want to master English well should understand about parts of speech, especially for English education department student’s.

Language produces sentences and sentences is formed by words that has meaning, it consists subject and predicate, at least, so, talking about subject it

CHAPTER II

THEORITICAL DESCRIPTION

A. Parts of Speech

1. Defenition Parts of Speech

Part of speech is derived from the words Part, of and speech. Part is some but not all of something, of is used to say what consist and consist of or contains, and speech is formal talk given to an audience,¹⁰ by statement above the writer mean that Parts of Speech is one of the classses of words. And part of speech defines the meaning of word to know what the sentences is. As Carrel states: Parts of speech is the meaning of a word and the way it is used in a sentence”.¹¹ It means that every words in the English can be assigned to at least one of only eight categories called parts of speech. It is known as the basic part of sentence constructing and as a small unit of sentence constructing.

The kinds of words are variously, so that its word has each meaning and the meaning we can identify as character, such as word “book” is identified as a noun, but in another case, “book” can be identified as a verb. So, parts of speech is a classification of word, as Lingga Hotben D says “Parts of speech adalah jenis atau kelas kata yang terdiri dari delapan jenis yaitu kata benda, kata sifat, kata ganti, kata kerja, kata keterangan, kata depan, kata sambung dan kata seru”.¹² In other word, it can be stated that parts of speech is the kinds or classes of words which that divided into eight basic kinds; noun, adjective, pronoun, verb, adverb, preposition, conjunction and interjection.

Part of speech makes the correct order based on the English Grammar and the function of each word. It is also states by Sofia Rangkuti "Parts of speech in made up of a combination of words in the correct order and function according to English grammar".¹³ It means that parts of speech is the words combining to make the correct order based on the English grammar, and Marcella Frank argues "Parts of speech is the sentence may be further divided according to the function each word has in the subject – predicate relationship".¹⁴ It means that a sentence is combined by subject and predicate. Subject consists of noun, pronoun and predicate consists of adjective, verb and total combination of this sentence always called parts of speech. So that part of speech tells about combination of word to make meaning and functionally.

2. Kinds Parts of Speech

¹⁴ Marcella Frank, Modern English a Practical Reference Guide, (New Jersey, Prentice Hall, 1972), p.

From the theories above, the writer sees that parts of speech can be divided into:

a. Noun

Noun is the name of person, place or thing. For example: boy, river, Adnan, movie, government, New York, etc. Adnan is a noun because it is the name of person; New York is a noun because it is the name of place; and boy is a noun because it is the name of a thing. The kinds of noun are :

- Common Noun is a name given in common to every person or thing of the same class or kind. Example : boy, woman, teacher, doctor, girl, officer.
- Proper Noun is the name of some particular person or place. Example : tagore, keats, mother teresa, shelly, india and japan.
- Collective Noun is the name of collection of thing or person. Example : crowd, team, block, herd, army, fleet, jury, family and nation.
- Concrete Noun is the name of a thing that can be touched or seen. Example : room, sun, girl, and boy
- Abstract Noun is the name of a quality, action or state. Example : freedom, liberty, thought, joy, sorrow, love, death, goodness and kindness
- Countable Noun is the name of a thing that can be counted or divided into singular or plura. Example : student, book, table, pen, camera, man, woman

- Uncountable Noun is the name of a thing that cannot be counted or divided into singular and plural. Example : milk, rice, ice, tea, ink, life, truth, beauty, iron, wool, gold and butter.
- Material Noun is the name of a material or substance out of which things are made. Example : gold, silver, wool, clay, milk, rice, ice, money, water, paper, copper and steel.

b. Pronouns

Pronouns are often defined as a word which can be used instead of a noun or for words that take place of noun. For example: instead of saying Andre is a good man, the pronoun he, can be used in place of the noun Andre and the sentence becomes He is a good man.

And pronoun is A word used in place of noun is known as a pronoun. Example : I, we, he, she, it, they. Pronoun are divided into eleven kinds, they are :

1. Personal Pronoun is used for three persons is known as personal pronoun. Example : first person (I, we), second person (you) and third person (he, she, it, and they).
2. Reflexive Pronoun is used with self or selves to reflect the action of the very on the subject is known as a reflexive pronoun. Example : myself, yourself, yourselves, ourselves, himself, herself, itself and themselves. (I saw myself in the mirror)

3. Emphatic Pronoun is used for the sake of emphasis is known as emphatic pronoun. Example : myself, yourself, yourselves, ourselves, himself, herself, itself and themselves. (I myself showed you the way)
4. Demonstrative Pronoun is used to point out the person or thing we talk about is known as a demonstrative pronoun. Example : this, that, such, these, those. (these are my teacher's books)
5. Indefinite Pronoun is used to talk about a person or thing indefinitely is known as indefinite pronoun. Example : one, something, none, somebody, everybody, anyone, nobody, all, one another, anything, nothing, few, both, everyone, some, many, several, everything, other, any, no other and no. (one has to be careful about ones "not his" health)
6. Interrogative Pronoun is used to make a question is known as an interrogative pronoun. Example : who, whose, which, whom and what. (Who: It is used only for persons in subjective case. Ex: who was the first prime minister of india)
7. Distributive Pronoun is used to talk about each and every person separately is known as a distributive pronoun. Example : each, either, none, both, everyone, every, neither, any, one, everybody and everything. (Each of us has a book)

8. Reciprocal Pronoun is used to talk about mutual relationship is known as a reciprocal pronoun. Example : each other, one another.
(the two sister loved each other)
9. Relative Pronoun is used combine or relate sentence or clauses together is known as a relative pronoun. Example : who, which, as, whom, what, but, whose and that. (The man who cheated you is my brother)
10. Relative Compound Pronoun is compounded with the word ever is known as a relative compound pronoun. Example : whoever, whenever, whichever, wherever, whatever and however. (whoever comes, tell them to wait at the gate)
11. Possessive Pronoun is used to express possession or ownership is a known as a possessive pronoun. Example : mine, his, theirs, ours, yours, hers and its. (This book is mine).¹⁵

c. Verb

Verb is a word used to show actions or state of being. It is the heart of a sentence and every sentence must have a verb. It is very important in understanding the meaning of a sentence. For example: Hadi go to the market, go is the verb and it shows the action of the sentence. In the sentence Sarah is my close friend, there is no action but a state of being expressed by the verb is.

The verb is the most complex part of speech. Its varying arrangements with nouns determine the different kinds of sentences-statements, questions, commands, exclamations, like the noun, the verb has the grammatical properties of person and number, properties which require agreement with the subject. But the verb also has several other grammatical properties that are shared with no other part of speech. These properties are :

1. Tense. Special verb ending or accompanying auxiliary verbs signal the time an event takes place.
2. Voice. Special verb forms are arranged in certain positions with nouns to indicate whether the grammatical subject of a sentence is performing an action (The policeman arrested the burglar-active voice) or is itself being acted upon (The burglar was arrested by the policemen-passive voice).
3. Mood. Special verb forms mark (a) commands and requests; (b) statement expressing wishes, unreal conditions, or matters of urgency or importance.
4. Aspect. Certain verb forms, often with accompanying adverbial expression, may indicate whether an event is to be regarded as a single point on a time continuum, a repetition of points, or a single duration with a beginning, a middle and an end. It is the aspect of duration that the English verb most readily expresses through the progressive forms of the tenses.

And the types of verbs described here differ according to the kind of complement they may have. Because these types may cut across each other, a verb may belong to more than one type that predicating or linking verbs. A predicating verbs is the chief word in the predicate that says something about the subject. The predicating word (or predicator) has traditionally been called a verb of “action” (babies cry; she wrote a letter), but has actually been interpreted to include most non-action verbs that are not linking verbs (for example : I remember him; She needs more money). Or a linking verb is a verb of incomplete predication; it merely announces that the real predicate follows. The important word in the complement is usually an adjective (The girl is pretty) or a noun (She is a pretty girl) The-ly adverbs of manner (quickly, angrily) are not used with linking verb. The more common linking verbs are appear, be, become, get (in the sense of become), look, remain and seem.

d. Adjective

Adjective is a word used to describe a noun or pronoun or to give a more specific meaning. In other word, it modifies the noun. For modifies the noun of the girl.

And adjective we may define as a word used with a noun to add something for is meaning. And adjectives may be divided into the following classes : Adjective of quality (or Descriptive Adjective) show the kind or quality of a person or thing, adjective of quantity show how much of a thing is meant and adjective of number (or Numeral Adjective) show how many persons or things are meant, or in what order a person or thing stands. Example : He is an honest man, I eat some rice and The hand has five fingers.¹⁶

e. Adverb

Adverb is a word that modifies a verb, an adjective or another adverb. For example: the plant grew upward, upward is an adverb because it modifies verb grew. In the sentences “He work very competently”, competently is also an adverb because it modifies the adverb very.

Kinds of adverb they are : adverb of manner, adverb of place, adverb of time, adverb of frequency, adverb of sentence, adverb of degree, adverb of interrogative, edverb of and adverb of relative. Example : fast, near, soon, always, luckily, hardly, when ? and where.¹⁷

f. Preposition

Preposition relates the noun or pronoun that appears with it to another word in the sentence. For example: Some inventions last for centuries, for is a preposition used to show the time. In the sentence People invent because of their curiosity, because of is preposition because used to show cause.

Prepositions usually come before the words they control. They indicate various relationship between words or phrase, the most usual being those of time, space (position, direction, etc), and mental or emotional attitudes. They can also come after the words they govern, notably in questions and in relative clauses. Example : What can I cut the bread with ?... , This is the book I was telling you about.

g. Conjunction

Conjunction is a word used to connect other words or groups of words. There are some kinds of conjunctions such as coordinating conjunction (and, but, for, nor, or, so, yet), correlative conjunction (both...and, either...or, neither...nor, not only...but also, whether ..or), subordinating conjunctions (after, although, as, as if, as long as, before, since, so that, etc”¹⁸.

3. The Using Parts of Speech

Based on the defenitions above, the writer concludes that parts of speech is the list of words which is the basic elements of sentence construction divided into; noun, pronoun, verb, adjective, adverb, preposition, and conjunction. It is often used in every sentence in correct order based on its grammatical function.

C. Discussion

After analyzing the collection of data and studying the real condition in the field the researcher found that the students' ability in identifying parts of speech and what are the decontextualizing and the factors that influence students' ability IAIN Padangsidimpuan was very urgent to be resolved. Most of the students' ability was so poor. It was caused by some difficulties that they faced. Those difficulties occurred due to internal and external factors.

Muhibbin Syah stated that the learning difficulties can be caused by 2 (two) factors, they are: the first, internal factors (factors from the child itself) involve; physiology factors such as healthy; and psychological factors such as IQ (Intelligence Question). The second, external factors (factors outside the child) involve; social factors such as the relationship with the child's parents; and not social factors such as the tools of learning, and learning condition.⁴³

Muhibbin Syah menyatakan bahwa kesulitan belajar dapat disebabkan oleh 2 (dua) faktor, yaitu pertama: faktor internal (faktor dari anak itu sendiri), melibatkan: faktor fisiologi seperti healthy; dan faktor-faktor psikologis seperti IQ (Intelligence Question). Kedua faktor external (faktor di luar anak), melibatkan: faktor sosial seperti hubungan dengan orangtua anak, dan faktor non sosial seperti alat belajar, dan kondisi belajar.

From the explanation above interviewing result researcher concluded that the influence students in mastering in understanding the part of speech as, atmosphere conducive to learning, which is easy to understand explanation lecturer, supporting books relating to the part of speech, and the discussions of the study part of speech, equity owned vocabulary students, the tasks given to the students lecturer, and students understanding of grammar structures, and learning methods used by faculty, semester study as follows:

1. Factors Intern

As of the fourth semester students internal factors presence of saturation, feeling lazy, bored, thus causing no effective learning process with this condition because they were indifferent in the learning process following the part of speech.

2. External Factors

Of external factors fourth semester students presence inactivity teachers or lecturers who truly wholeheartedly in teaching, the media rarely used, and educational facilities are not so adequate.

Dari hasil data penelitian, peneliti perlu mendiskusikan hasil penelitian tentang faktor yang mempengaruhi mahasiswa dalam proses pembelajaran part of speech, sebagaimana dikemukakan oleh Muhibbin Syah di atas yaitu ada dua faktor yang mendasar yang perlu untuk didiskusikan kepada mahasiswa semester IV yaitu faktor internal dan faktor eksternal, adapun hasil yang didiskusikan peneliti bersama mahasiswa semester IV yaitu sebagai berikut:

1. Faktor intern

Adapun dari faktor intern mahasiswa dari semester IV adanya kejenuhan, rasa malas, bosan sehingga menyebabkan proses pembelajaran tidak efektif karena mnereka dengan kondisi ini acuh tak acuh dalam mengikuti proses pembelajaran part of speech.

2. Faktor external

Dari faktor external mahasiswa semester IV adanya ketidak aktifan para pelajar atau dosen yang betul-betul sepenuh hati dalam mengajar, media jarang dipakai, dan fasilitas pendidikan yang belum begitu memadai.⁴⁴

Sesuai dengan hasil diskusi diatas, melihat dari dua factor yaitu factor intern dan factor external, maka peneliti memberikan saran agar mahasiswa lebihaktif dan lebih semangat lagi serta kepada pengajar atau doser agar lebih serius mempersiapkan diri dan memnfatkan fasilitas sebaik mungkin.

D. The Weakness of Research

Reseacher would preted the weacness of this reseach such as below:

1. In conductingthis research, the researcher realized that there were so many thereats of the writing procedures. The researcher realized thet to conduct a qualitative research would take long time research. the result obtained might be less valid, due to the state of students who might not be to serious in answering any question from the interview, Due to be the limitation of time a finance, this research was conducted in shoth time which made in far from perfection.

2. In conducting the interviews, the result obtained might be less valid, due to the state of students who might not be to serious in aswering any question from the interview. which is easy to understand explanation lekturer, supporting books relating to the part of speech, and the discussions of the study part of speech, equity ownwd vocabulary students, the tasks given to the students lecturer, In a sense, when they secretly observed by the researcher, the protentedto perform better than usual.

And however, the researcherhad done the best in this research. The researcher was very aware of the theatts that exits in this paper, but whitc hard word, this paper could be vully reselved. There fore , to get a fix this paper, the researcher expected support from teachers. Friends and readers.
